A long time ago, Father God
was sitting on his throne in heaven.

He was sad.

His only Son, Jesus, asked,

“What’s the matter, Dad?”

Father God answered,

“Too many people on earth
fight, lie, steal, and forget about me.

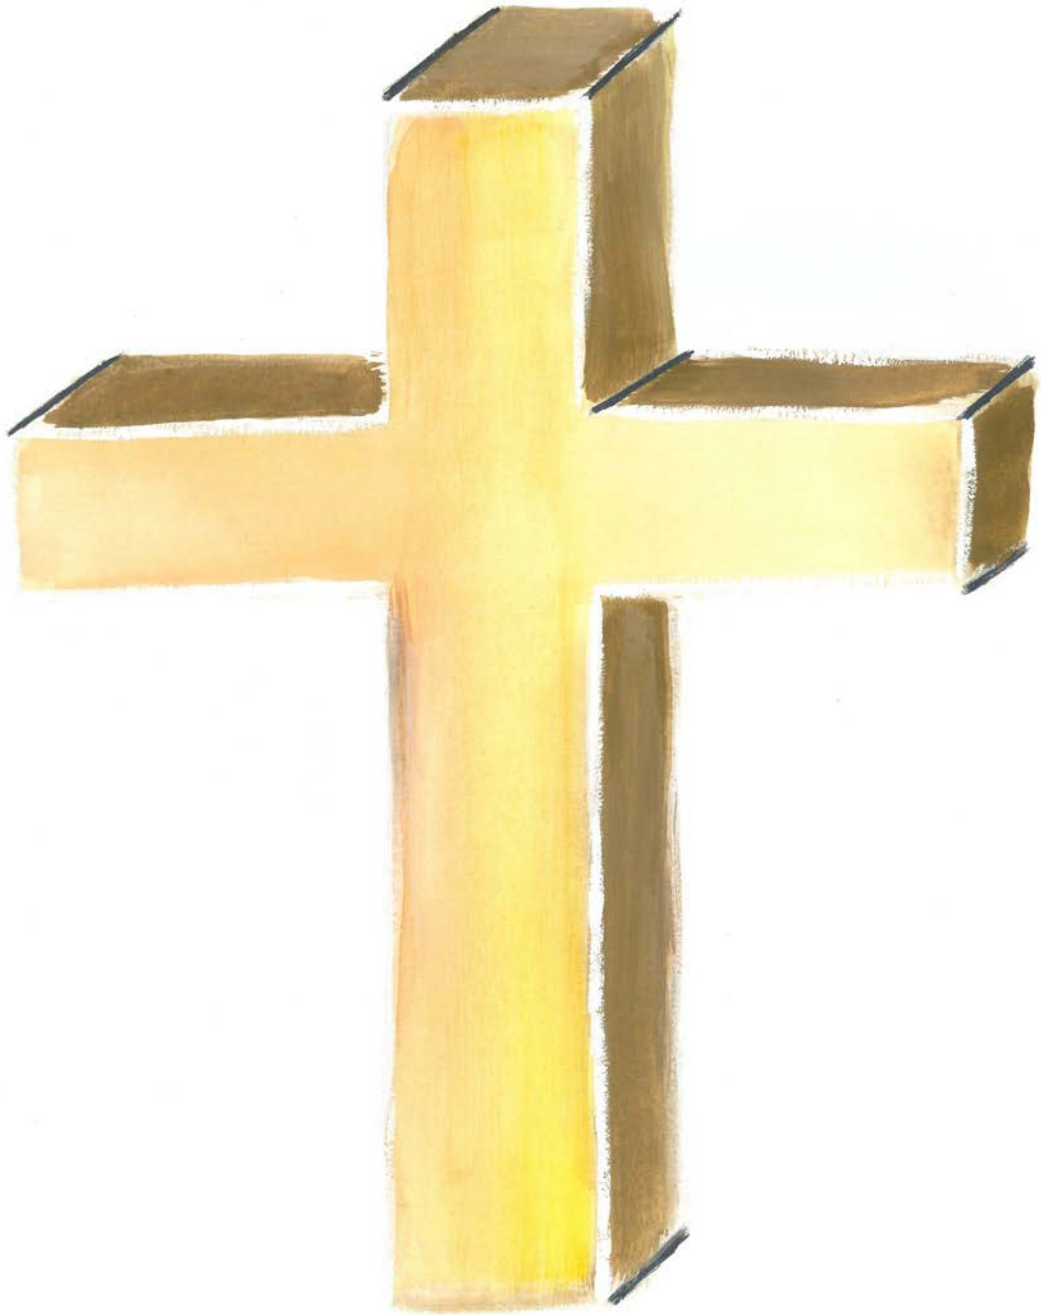

This is bad
and makes me very, very sad.”

"Yes, Father, that's true.
But tell me,
what can we do?
They don't want to change
or listen to you."

"My Son, you are right.
I think about this day and night.
We created them
with so much love and joy.
But they treat our love like a toy.
They take it, play with it,
then throw it away.
My heart is broken every single day."

Father God continued,

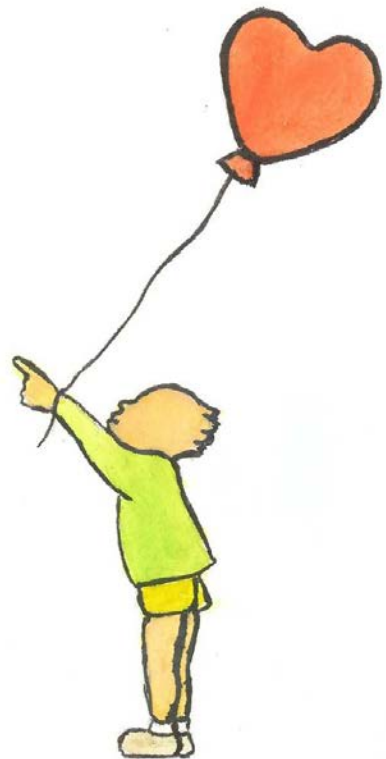

“Things must change.

I need someone
to take all the bad things away.

It must be someone I can trust.

Who can I send?

Who will it be?”

A watercolor illustration of a wooden boat on a bright yellow sea. The boat is in the lower-left corner, with its hull and part of its deck visible. The sea is a vibrant yellow, and the sky is a lighter, pale yellow. The overall style is soft and painterly.

Jesus said,

"Send me.
I will be their teacher,
Savior and friend."

“Oh that’s perfect, my Son!
If I send you,
they will finally understand
how much we love them.
Yes, go to earth
and be their teacher,
Savior, and friend.”

“Jesus, my Son,
I will make sure
that people write about you.
So one, day everyone will know you.”

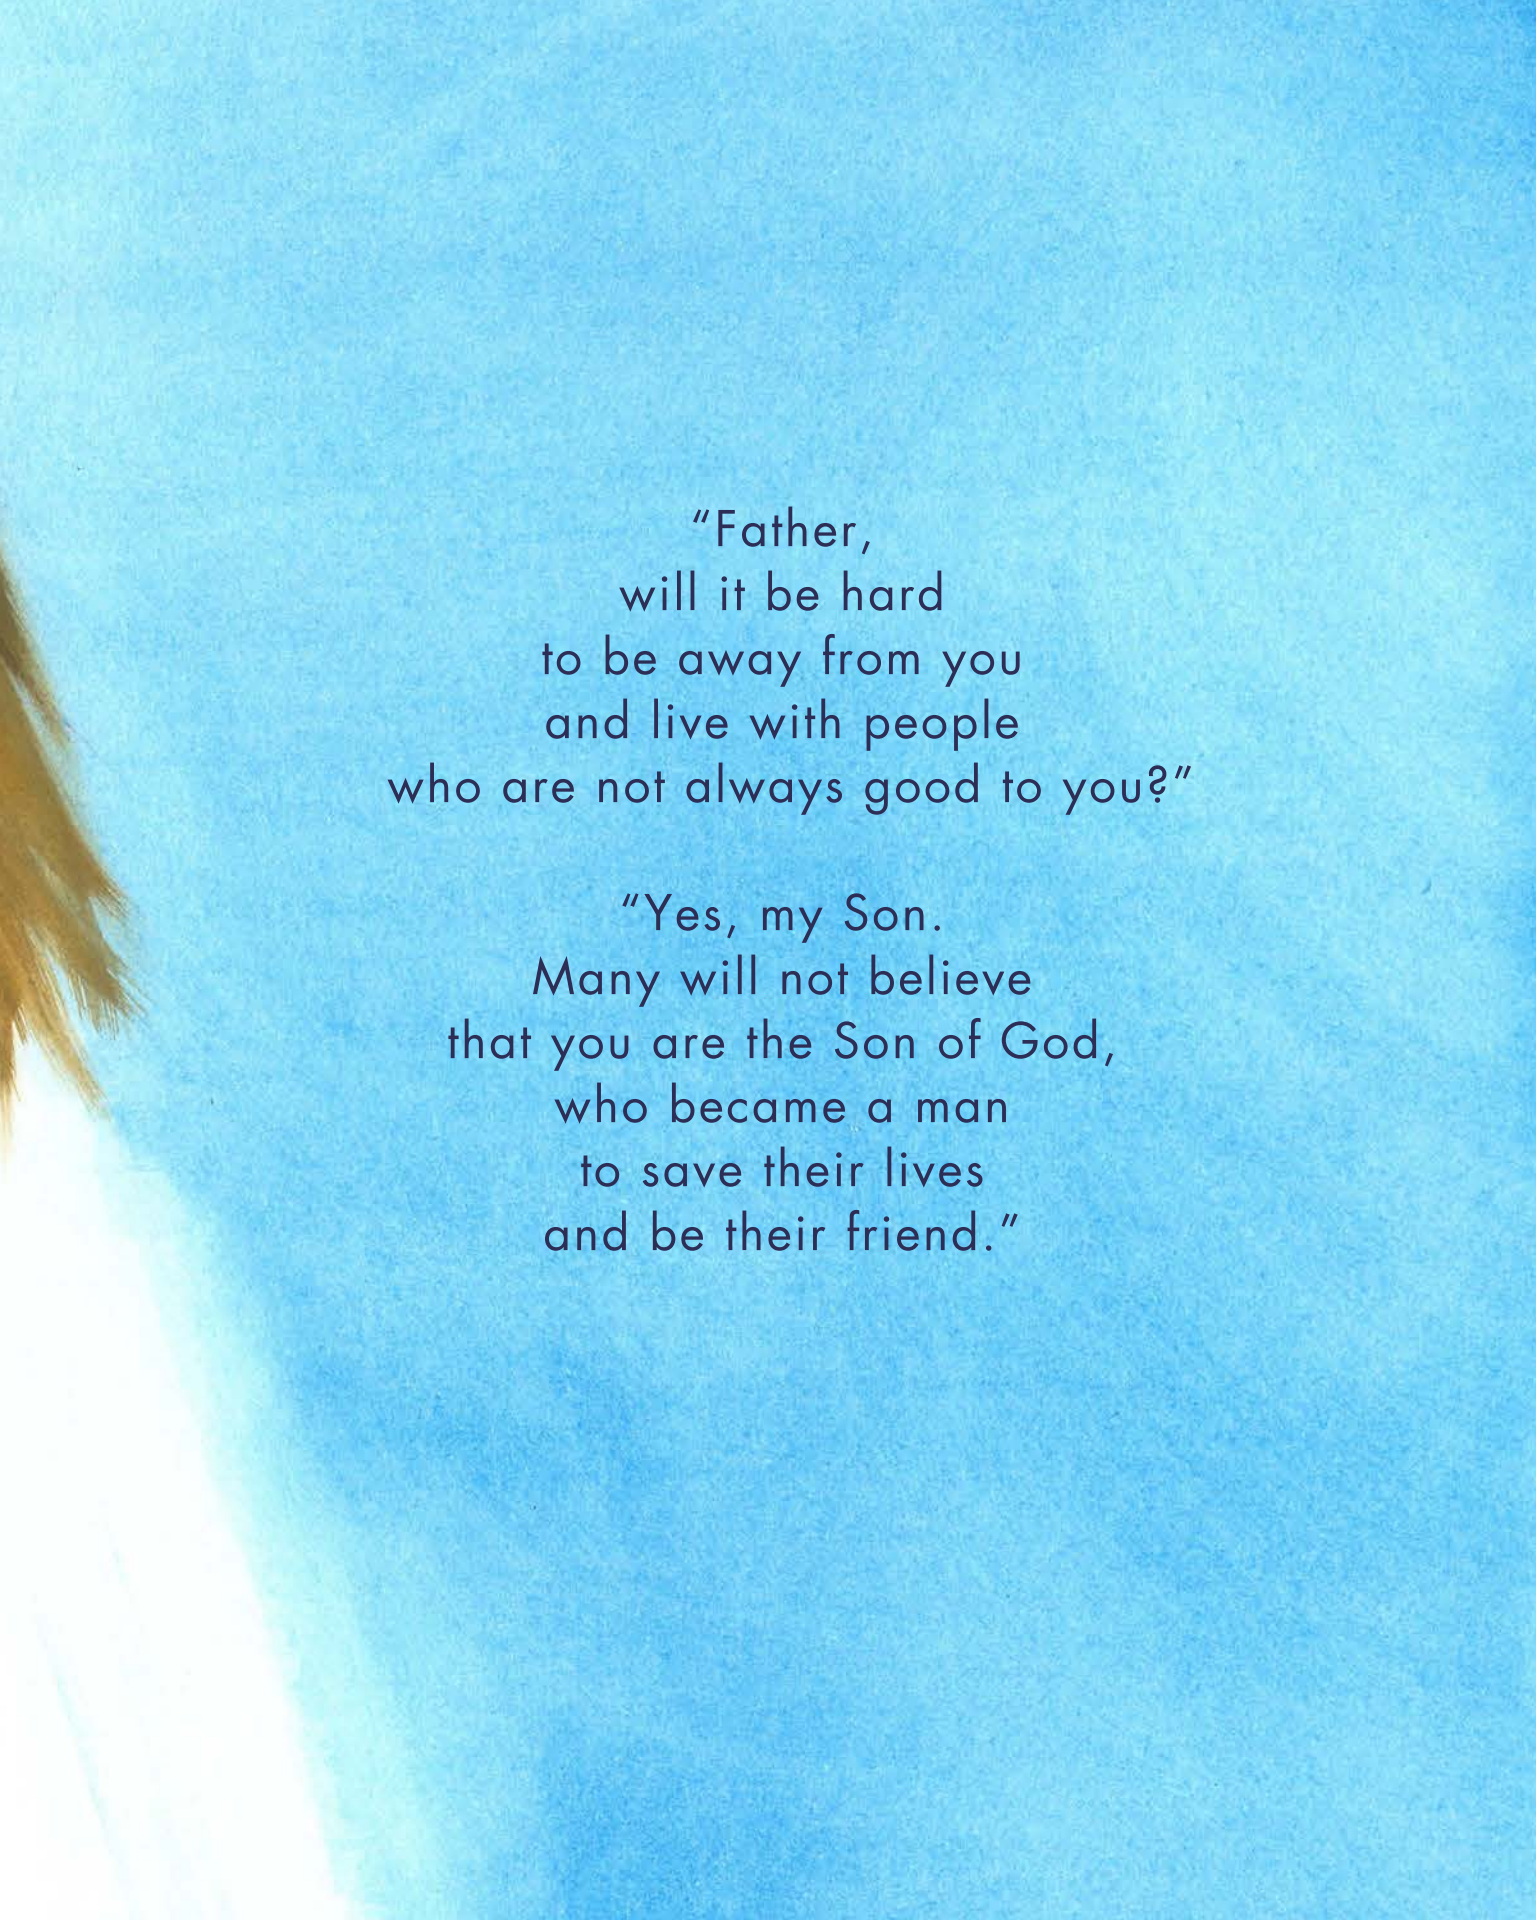

“When you are on earth,
say what you hear me say.
And do what you see me do.
Be part of their lives.
Heal all their diseases.
Be strong like a lion
and gentle
like a thousand breezes.”

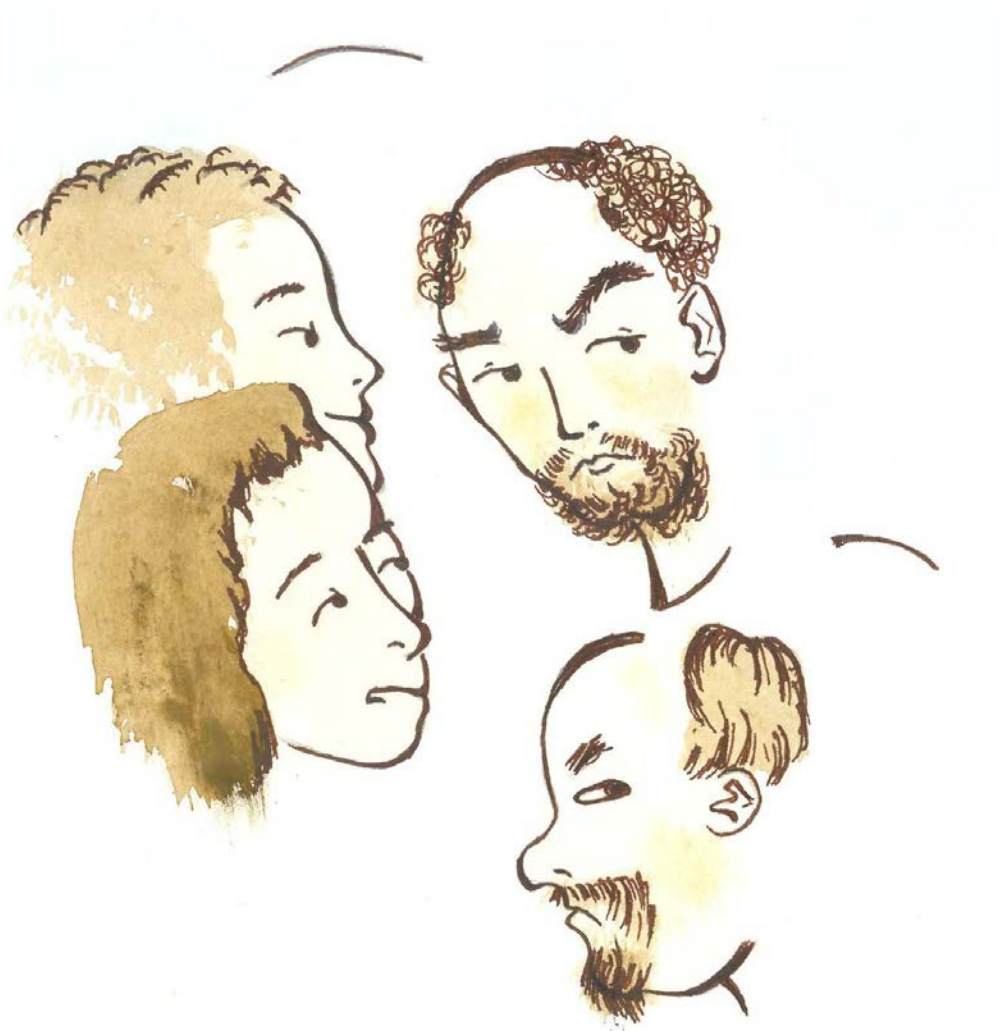

A close-up photograph of a person's hair and shoulder, positioned on the left side of the frame. The hair is light brown and appears to be part of a ponytail or a similar style. The person is wearing a white garment. The background is a solid, bright blue color with a subtle, fine-grained texture.

“Father,
will it be hard
to be away from you
and live with people who are not always good to you?”

“Yes, my Son.
Many will not believe that you are the Son of God,
who became a man
to save their lives
and be their friend.”

“Some people will love you,
but those who hate you
will nail you to a cross
and smile.

They will be happy
to see you hurt and die.”

“Three days after your death,
you will be alive again.
Ready to teach new things
to my beloved children.”

“You will forever be their Savior,
teacher, brother, and friend.”

“You will be their joy,
and you will be their strength.
Always by their side
to hold their precious hand.”

This book narrows down the message of the cross to a story preschoolers can easily understand. The simple, poetic language gives readers a peek behind the scenes of heaven into Father God's tender heart. The little ones will also receive a deeper understanding of Jesus's mission to teach, heal, and save us so we can one day live with Him forever in heaven.

This Christian picture book is a wonderful resource for families, churches, Sunday schools, homeschoolers, and Christian educators hoping to shape small souls and teach children about Jesus's death on the cross and His resurrection.

The inspirational Christian art beautifully complements the truth the book delivers. Every mother and father will want their own personal copy of The Message of the Cross for Preschoolers.
